

GAS.
GAS.
The Price is $2 50
Per 1000 Cubic Feet,
—With a—
Discount of 50 cts. per 1000
For Prompt Payment of Bills, Government Tax Added.

Liberal arrangements made in regard to laying new service pipes.
No charge for setting meters.
Call at the Company's Office,
No. 291 Second Street.

PUBLICATIONS.
TO NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS.

THE SOUTHERN NEWSPAPER UNION,
at Nashville, Tenn., are furnishing TWELVE DIFFERENT EDITIONS
—of—
Ready-Printed Outlines, Insets
and Supplements,
For the Country Press, in a style equal to any concern engaged in the same business, and at a cheaper rate than Chicago, Milwaukee, or New York. Orders promptly filled for any newspaper in the South. Address:
Southern Newspaper Union,
Nashville, Tenn.

AGENCY.
PIEDMONT AND ARLINGTON
LIFE INSURANCE CO.

—And—
Real Estate Agency.

DILLARD & SPOTSWOOD,
AGENTS.

Office, 5 1-2 Madison st., Memphis.

IN THIS CONNECTION WE BEG LEAVE to state that we can give good bargains in a number of improved and Unimproved lots in and around the city. 7-35

THE OLD RELIABLE.

FRANKLIN
BOOK BINDERY,

Blank Book Manufactory

PRINTING HOUSE,

15 West Court street, Memphis.

S. C. TOOF, Proprietor.

BOOKS BOUND AND MANUFACTURED
from a PATENT to the FINEST BOOK in the country, the Eastern market not excepted
in quality or price.
Fine Black Books a Specialty.

THE

MEMPHIS PRESBYTERIAN!

Rev. A. Shotwell, Editor.

HITE & SHOTWELL, Prop's

PUBLISHED

EVERY SATURDAY.

Office: 335 Main Street.

By Terms, $3 per copy.

INSURANCE.

MASONIC MUTUAL

Life Assurance Association.

No. 334 Front Street.

Magnolia Block, cor. Union street, up stairs

312 CONSTITUTE YOU A MEMBER.

For full policy, at examination fee, and $1 annually. No other expense except in case of the death of a member, when you will be reimbursed. 11-14

WALL PAPER.

HOOK & GRILL,

—Dealers in—
WALL PAPER
And Window Shades.

326 Second street, Memphis, Tenn.

STAMP GLASS, BRONZES, SATINS AND
Blankets, Fire Screens, Center Pieces,
Fire Screens, Statues, etc. 105-112

FOR SALE.

MASONIC TEMPLE.

OLD BUILDING FOR SALE.

CREATED PROPOSALS WILL BE REceived at the office of the Secretary, for sixty days from date (February 10, 1872), for the purchase of the two-story brick building on the northeast corner of Madison and Second streets, $1200. The same must be removed within thirty days from date of perchase, or when ordered by the Directors.
Terms cash, or approved fifty-day note.
The Directors reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Directors,
J. H. BAKER, President.
J. W. BAKER, Secretary. 141-150

PUBLICATION.

NO PAPER IN MEMPHIS IS A BETTER
advertising medium than the Western Union, which is published within the limits of which Memphis is the commercial center of a very large circulation. This can be known from a read of all who become interested.
Advertisers advertising will pay. Our office is 270 Main street, up stairs, in same building with Doyle & Chapman.

R. W. BLEW & CO.

CHICKERING PIANOS ARE T

PUBLIC
LEDGER.
By E. WHITMORE.
VOL. XIV.

PUBLIC LEDGER.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER IS PUBLISHED
every afternoon (except Sunday) by
E. WHITMORE.

At No. 13 Madison street.
The Public Ledger is served to city subscribers by faithful carriers at 1 PM. It is also sent by mail, payable weekly to the carrier.
By mail (in advance): One year, $2; six months, $1; three months, $1; one month,
25 cents.
Newsdealers supplied at 25 cents per copy.

Weekly Public Ledger.

Published every Tuesday at $2 per annum (in advance); club of five or more, $10.
Communications upon subjects of general interest to the public are at all times acceptable.
Selected manuscripts will not be returned.

RATES OF ADVERTISING IN DAILY.

First insertion—$1.00 per square.
Subsequent insertions—50 " "
For one week—3.00 " "
For two weeks—5.00 " "
For three weeks—7.00 " "
For one month—10.00 " "

RATES OF ADVERTISING IN WEEKLY.

First insertion—$1.00 per square.
Subsequent insertions—50 " "
Right lines of newspaper, solid, constitute a square.

Displayed advertisements will be charged
according to the space occupied, at above
rates—there being twelve lines of solid type to
the inch.

Notices in local column inserted for twenty
cents per line for each insertion.

To regular advertisers we offer superior inducements, both as to rate of charges and
manner of displaying their favors.

Special notices inserted for ten cents per line
for each insertion.

Notices of deaths and marriages, twenty
cents per line.

All bills for advertising are due when contracted and payable on demand.

Witness this on the cloth-line or otherwise, must be addressed to:
E. WHITMORE,
Publisher and Proprietor.

CONSTANCY.

BY FRED W. LORING.

SCENE: A Mountain-camp in the Sierra Nevada. JACK, washing clothes, soliloquizes.
Well, by Jove! Here's a handkerchief now,
Which, in washing my clothes, I find lying
near!

Decidedly feminine, too! Well, how could that thing ever have crept in here?
Is—well, what is the other name?

By gracious, it must be Isabel King!
And I'd forgotten her! What a shame!
She was really a lovely little thing.

Now I remember—how could I forget!
The night when that handkerchief I took;
I wonder if she married yet.

And if she still keeps that girlish look?
Well, on the whole, I don't know.
I can't say I hear how the wild surf sings—
And we were alone—there was nobody by.

And I said a great many preposterous
things.

And I pressed the handkerchief to my heart,
And swore to keep it for ever and ever;
And it not being lace—she let it depart.

And I swore that it should go from me;
And I've kept my promise for all these years;
Isabel, I am more faithful than you!

For, that you are married, I have my fears—
But, when was a woman known to be true!

For you have forgotten me quite, and I Am wringing the ends from your handker-
chief.

Which seems as though it would never get
dry.

And now it is my assured belief
That I shall get married, when this trip's
through.

I shall make the best husband in the world,
Because I am ever constant and true—
Witness this on the cloth-line curled.

By Jove! what's that? Why, Jim, old boy,
And you killed him? Good!—that is cause
for joy.

Well, here, fellows, this side of
the rock!

Not fatal, but still I think you will find
That it's far from fun to be clawed by a bear!

Here, bring us some stuff his wounds to bind;
Stay! Take that old handkerchief over
there!

—Appleton's Journal.

BURNETT'S COCAINE is the best and
cheapest hair-dressing in the world.

Singular Coincidence.

The Jamestown Journal, of February
23d, relates the following: Mr. Frank Canfield, who was killed on Friday last,
was betrothed to a young lady of this town, and was to have been married in about two months. On Friday, when the train passed here on its way west,
the young lady saw him, and that evening
she was in unusually light spirits.

The next morning at the breakfast table
her appearance was so much the reverse
of the evening previous that it attracted
the attention of her mother, who asked
the cause of her apparent trouble.

The young lady thereupon related to her mother that she had dreamed that her lover had fallen under the cars, and had been so seriously injured that he had died in about two hours. She told the circumstances as she had seen in her
dream, how he had fallen and the car
wheels had rolled over him.

His left leg and left arm, and that he had lived in great agony for about two hours.
Her mother endeavored to persuade her
that there was nothing in a dream, but to
no purpose—she could not drive it
from her mind. About noon a sister of the young man came to the house and said she had bad news. She then related
the circumstances of her brother's death,
corresponding in detail with the dream
as told by the young lady some hours
before.

Sunken Treasure.

Off the coast of Ecuador, near Point
Saint Elena, lie the remains of a once
magnificent Spanish frigate, sent out by the government of Spain in 1802, to collect tribute money. After collecting
about $5,000,000 she was wrecked on her
way to Panama, and now lies where she has lain for seventy years, in the direct
track of navigation, and only six hundred feet from the shore. The Spanish
government recovered from the wreck
about $500,000 in the early part of the century, and in after years about $100,
000 was got up by an enterprising individual. It is now proposed to make a decisive effort to recover the rest of the immense treasure sunk in the sea, and
an expedition has left the California
coast with that object. Hydraulic machinery of great caliber, and the wonderful engine of the Pacific Coast
Wrecking Company are to be employed.

A storekeeper at Quincy, Michigan,
having a pup that habitually upset the
pump can in the rear of the store, rub-
bed the dog's nose in the spilled paint
as a reminder that he must not do so again. Last week the dog again spilled
the paint, and observing that his master
was engaged in waiting on a customer,
the docile pup rubbed his nose in the
mixture and ran howling out the back way.

PUBLIC
LEDGER.
By E. WHITMORE.
VOL. XIV.

PUBLIC LEDGER.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER IS PUBLISHED
every afternoon (except Sunday) by
E. WHITMORE.

At No. 13 Madison street.
The Public Ledger is served to city subscribers by faithful carriers at 1 PM. It is also
sent by mail, payable weekly to the carrier.
By mail (in advance): One year, $2; six
months, $1; three months, $1; one month,
25 cents.
Newsdealers supplied at 25 cents per copy.

Weekly Public Ledger.

Published every Tuesday at $2 per annum (in advance); club of five or more, $10.
Communications upon subjects of general
interest to the public are at all times accept-
able.
Selected manuscripts will not be returned.

RATES OF ADVERTISING IN DAILY.

First insertion—$1.00 per square.
Subsequent insertions—50 " "
For one week—3.00 " "
For two weeks—5.00 " "
For three weeks—7.00 " "
For one month—10.00 " "

RATES OF ADVERTISING IN WEEKLY.

First insertion—$1.00 per square.
Subsequent insertions—50 " "
Right lines of newspaper, solid, constitute a
square.

Displayed advertisements will be charged
according to the space occupied, at above
rates—there being twelve lines of solid type to
the inch.

Notices in local column inserted for twenty
cents per line for each insertion.

To regular advertisers we offer superior inducements, both as to rate of charges and
manner of displaying their favors.

Special notices inserted for ten cents per line
for each insertion.

Notices of deaths and marriages, twenty
cents per line.

All bills for advertising are due when contracted and payable on demand.

Witness this on the cloth-line or otherwise, must be addressed to:
E. WHITMORE,
Publisher and Proprietor.

CONSTANCY.

BY FRED W. LORING.

SCENE: A Mountain-camp in the Sierra Ne-
vada. JACK, washing clothes, soliloquizes.
Well, by Jove! Here's a handkerchief now,
Which, in washing my clothes, I find lying
near!

Decidedly feminine, too! Well, how
could that thing ever have crept in here?
Is—well, what is the other name?

By gracious, it must be Isabel King!
And I'd forgotten her! What a shame!
She was really a lovely little thing.

Now I remember—how could I forget!
The night when that handkerchief I took;
I wonder if she married yet.

And if she still keeps that girlish look?
Well, on the whole, I don't know.
I can't say I hear how the wild surf sings—
And we were alone—there was nobody by.

And I said a great many preposterous
things.

And I pressed the handkerchief to my heart,
And swore to keep it for ever and ever;
And it not being lace—she let it depart.

And I swore that it should go from me;
And I've kept my promise for all these years;
Isabel, I am more faithful than you!

For, that you are married, I have my fears—
But, when was a woman known to be true!

For you have forgotten me quite, and I Am wringing the ends from your handker-
chief.

Which seems as though it would never get
dry.

And now it is my assured belief
That I shall get married, when this trip's
through.

I shall make the best husband in the world,
Because I am ever constant and true—
Witness this on the cloth-line curled.

By Jove! what's that? Why, Jim, old boy,
And you killed him? Good!—that is cause
for joy.

Well, here, fellows, this side of
the rock!

Not fatal, but still I think you will find
That it's far from fun to be clawed by a
bear!

Here, bring us some stuff his wounds to bind;
Stay! Take that old handkerchief over
there!

—Appleton's Journal.

BURNETT'S COCAINE is the best and
cheapest hair-dressing in the world.

Singular Coincidence.

The Jamestown Journal, of February
23d, relates the following: Mr. Frank
Canfield, who was killed on Friday last,
was betrothed to a young lady of this
town, and was to have been married in
about two months. On Friday, when the
train passed here on its way west,
the young lady saw him, and that evening
she was in unusually light spirits.

The next morning at the breakfast table
her appearance was so much the reverse
of the evening previous that it attracted
the attention of her mother, who asked
the cause of her apparent trouble.

The young lady thereupon related to her
mother that she had dreamed that her
lover had fallen under the cars, and had
been so seriously injured that he had died in about two hours. She told the
circumstances as she had seen in her
dream, how he had fallen and the car
wheels had rolled over him.

His left leg and left arm, and that he had
lived in great agony for about two hours.
Her mother endeavored to persuade her
that there was nothing in a dream, but to
no purpose—she could not drive it
from her mind. About noon a sister of the young man came to the house and
said she had bad news. She then related
the circumstances of her brother's death,
corresponding in detail with the dream
as told by the young lady some hours
before.

Sunken Treasure.

Off the coast of Ecuador, near Point
Saint Elena, lie the remains of a once
magnificent Spanish frigate, sent out by
the government of Spain in 1802, to collect tribute money. After collecting
about $5,000,000 she was wrecked on her
way to Panama, and now lies where she
has lain for seventy years, in the direct
track of navigation, and only six hundred feet from the shore. The Spanish
government recovered from the wreck
about $500,000 in the early part of the
century, and in after years about $100,
000 was got up by an enterprising individual. It is now proposed to make a decisive effort to recover the rest of the
immense treasure sunk in the sea, and
an expedition has left the California
coast with that object. Hydraulic machinery of great caliber, and the wonderful engine of the Pacific Coast
Wrecking Company are to be employed.

A storekeeper at Quincy, Michigan,
having a pup that habitually upset the
pump can in the rear of the store, rub-
bed the dog's nose in the spilled paint
as a reminder that he must not do so
again. Last week the dog again spilled
the paint, and observing that his master
was engaged in waiting on a customer,
the docile pup rubbed his nose in the
mixture and ran howling out the
back way.

PUBLIC
LEDGER.
By E. WHITMORE.
VOL. XIV.

PUBLIC LEDGER.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER IS PUBLISHED
every afternoon (except Sunday) by
E. WHITMORE.

At No. 13 Madison street.
The Public Ledger is served to city subscribers by faithful carriers at 1 PM. It is also
sent by mail, payable weekly to the carrier.
By mail (in advance): One year, $2; six
months, $1; three months, $1; one month,
25 cents.
Newsdealers supplied at 25 cents per copy.

Weekly Public Ledger.

Published every Tuesday at $2 per annum (in advance); club of five or more, $10.
Communications upon subjects of general
interest to the public are at all times accept-
able.
Selected manuscripts will not be returned.

RATES OF ADVERTISING IN DAILY.

First insertion—$1.00 per square.
Subsequent insertions—50 " "
For one week—3.00 " "
For two weeks—5.00 " "
For three weeks—7.00 " "
For one month—10.00 " "

RATES OF ADVERTISING IN WEEKLY.

First insertion—$1.00 per square.
Subsequent insertions—50 " "
Right lines of newspaper, solid, constitute a
square.

Displayed advertisements will be charged
according to the space occupied, at above
rates—there being twelve lines of solid type to
the inch.

Notices in local column inserted for twenty
cents per line for each insertion.

To regular advertisers we offer superior inducements, both as to rate of charges and
manner of displaying their favors.

Special notices inserted for ten cents per line
for each insertion.

Notices of deaths and marriages, twenty
cents per line.

All bills for advertising are due when contracted and payable on demand.

Witness this on the cloth-line or otherwise, must be addressed to:
E. WHITMORE,
Publisher and Proprietor.

CONSTANCY.

BY FRED W. LORING.

SCENE: A Mountain-camp in the Sierra Ne-
vada. JACK, washing clothes, soliloquizes.
Well, by Jove! Here's a handkerchief now,
Which, in washing my clothes, I find lying
near!

Decidedly feminine, too! Well, how
could that thing ever have crept in here?
Is—well, what is the other name?

By gracious, it must be Isabel King!
And I'd forgotten her! What a shame!
She was really a lovely little thing.

Now I remember—how could I forget!
The night when that handkerchief I took;
I wonder if she married yet.

And if she still keeps that girlish look?
Well, on the whole, I don't know.
I can't say I hear how the wild surf sings—
And we were alone—there was nobody by.

And I said a great many preposterous
things.

And I pressed the handkerchief to my heart,
And swore to keep it for ever and ever;
And it not being lace—she let it depart.

And I swore that it should go from me;
And I've kept my promise for all these years;
Isabel, I am more faithful than you!

For, that you are married, I have my fears—
But, when was a woman known to be true!

For you have forgotten me quite, and I Am wringing the ends from your handker-
chief.

Which seems as though it would never get
dry.

And now it is my assured belief
That I shall get married, when this trip's
through.

I shall make the best husband in the world,
Because I am ever constant and true—
Witness this on the cloth-line curled.

By Jove! what's that? Why, Jim, old boy,
And you killed him? Good!—that is cause
for joy.

Well, here, fellows, this side of
the rock!

Not fatal, but still I think you will find
That it's far from fun to be clawed by a
bear!

Here, bring us some stuff his wounds to bind;
Stay! Take that old handkerchief over
there!

—Appleton's Journal.

BURNETT'S COCAINE is the best and
cheapest hair-dressing in the world.

Singular Coincidence.

The Jamestown Journal, of February
23d, relates the following: Mr. Frank
Canfield, who was killed on Friday last,
was betrothed to a young lady of this
town, and was to have been married in
about two months. On Friday, when the
train passed here on its way west,
the young lady saw him, and that evening
she was in unusually light spirits.

The next morning at the breakfast table
her appearance was so much the reverse
of the evening previous that it attracted
the attention of her mother, who asked
the cause of her apparent trouble.

The young lady thereupon related to her
mother that she had dreamed that her
lover had fallen under the cars, and had
been so seriously injured that he had died in about two hours. She told the
circumstances as she had seen in her
dream, how he had fallen and the car
wheels had rolled over him.

His left leg and left arm, and that he had
lived in great agony for about two hours.
Her mother endeavored to persuade her
that there was nothing in a dream, but to
no purpose—she could not drive it
from her mind. About noon a sister of the young man came to the house and
said she had bad news. She then related
the circumstances of her brother's death,
corresponding in detail with the dream
as told by the young lady some hours
before.

Sunken Treasure.

Off the coast of Ecuador, near Point
Saint Elena, lie the remains of a once
magnificent Spanish frigate, sent out by
the government of Spain in 1802, to collect tribute money. After collecting
about $5,000,000 she was wrecked on her
way to Panama, and now lies where she
has lain for seventy years, in the direct
track of navigation, and only six hundred feet from the shore. The Spanish
government recovered from the wreck
about $500,000 in the early part of the
century, and in after years about $100,
000 was got up by an enterprising individual. It is now proposed to make a decisive effort to recover the rest of the
immense treasure sunk in the sea, and
an expedition has left the California
coast with that object. Hydraulic machinery of great caliber, and the wonderful engine of the Pacific Coast
Wrecking Company are to be employed.

A storekeeper at Quincy, Michigan,
having a pup that habitually upset the
pump can in the rear of the store, rub-
bed the dog's nose in the spilled paint
as a reminder that he must not do so
again. Last week the dog again spilled
the paint, and observing that his master
was engaged in waiting on a customer,
the docile pup rubbed his nose in the
mixture and ran howling out the